

What's P the Problem?

Questions for Classroom Discussion

“Background Music” — (Science)

What are the steps in an experiment that might determine whether or not background music improves student grades?

How can an experiment about how plants react to music be helpful in designing an experiment to see whether background music improves grades?

When conducting an experiment about background music and grades, what might be the controlled and independent variables?