Teacher Jokes

What do you call a teacher without students?

Relaxed

You need to give teachers a lot of credit. Then again, if they got paid more, they wouldn't need so much.

PARENT #1: I'm concerned about that teacher with the crossed eyes.

PARENT #2: Why? I hear she's great.

PARENT #1: Well, we know that she can't keep control of her pupils!

Sleepy Jokes

It's easy for students to get confused in school. For example, teachers are always telling them to follow their dreams, but they don't let them sleep in class!

TEACHER: Sam, you know you can't sleep in my class.

SAM: Well, maybe I could if you'd be a little quieter!

Underachieving Jokes

STUDENT: I didn't deserve a zero on this test!

TEACHER: Good point... but that's the lowest score I could give you!

Mrs. Taylor wrote on her whiteboard, "I ain't had no fun all summer."
"So, Jimmy," she said. "What should I do to correct this?"

Jimmy thought for a moment, and finally answered, "I guess you could go to the waterpark!"

Ryan came home from school and his mother asked, "What did you learn today?" As expected, Ryan gave the same reply as he did every other day: "Not enough. I have to keep going back."

TEACHER: I wish you'd pay a just little attention, Sarah.

SARAH: Really? I feel like I'm paying as little attention as I can.

TEACHER: You missed school yesterday, didn't you?

STUDENT: Not as much as you might think.

TEACHER: I hope I didn't see you looking at Jose's exam!

STUDENT: I sure hope you didn't, either!

TEACHER: Paul, I read your essay on your dog, and I can remember that last year your brother turned in exactly the same essay. You didn't copy it did you?

PAUL: Of course not! It just happens to be the same dog!

STUDENT: Just to be sure, I can't get in trouble for something I didn't do, right?

TEACHER: Of course not! I'm a fair person

STUDENT: That's a relief, because I didn't do my homework.

MOTHER: Renee, you don't mind going to school do you?

RENEE: Not really... going to school is fine, and so is coming home. It's being at school that's no fun.
