

Every School is Haunted!

How many of these ghosts have you had a close encounter with?

FROSTY

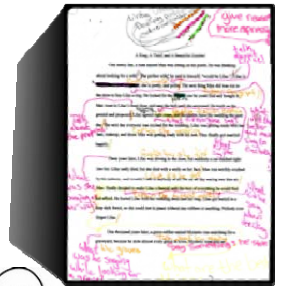

Frosty will instantly make any room too hot or too cold, and she does so without any notice or logical reason

@#$%&

@#$%& will place typos and bad grammar throughout your e-mails, letters, and papers after you've proofread them a dozen times

SHUFFLES

Shuffles will rearrange your desk in the most frustrating of ways, hiding your stapler, rearranging your papers, and placing next week's test face-up for everyone to see.

WHISPERS

Whispers will giggle and make noises while your back is turned... you know it was a ghost because your students will promise that it wasn't them.

MEANY PANTS

Meany Pants is the most dangerous of all ghosts. She will put you in a bad mood for no reason at all, no matter how well the day began. Your students have seen Meany Pants in action.
